

Brian Gottlob is the Director of the NH Economic and Labor Market Information Bureau. Prior to accepting that position in late 2019, Brian was the Principal of PoIEcon (POL' EE' CON) Research, an economic consulting firm located in Dover, NH. For more than three decades Brian has analyzed economic, demographic, labor market, and industry trends for corporations, trade associations, government agencies, and legal/ lobbying firms. Brian has completed studies on wide range of economic, demographic, and labor market issues in NH and 30 other states. Prior to founding PoIEcon, Brian was a Vice President for Fiscal and Economic Policy at the Business and Industry Association of NH.